4. (Secret - JMM) [REDACTED] and I met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, whom we briefed on recent information regarding Soviet and ChiCom space programs, the situation in Southeast Asia, Soviet submarine deployment, a new Soviet installation in the Far East, Soviet advanced aircraft testing, and ChiCom fighter production.

We discussed problems regarding the briefing of Senator Allen Ellender on both Agency and community matters and on certain special projects, and I told Woodruff of the Director's views on this matter and of recent conversations the Director had with Secretary Laird. I also reminded Woodruff of our thus far unsuccessful efforts to set a date for such a briefing with Senator Ellender. Woodruff agreed that he would take the matter up with Senator Ellender in the near future.

5. (Confidential - JGO) In response to a call from Mr. James T. Kendall, Chief Counsel, Senate Preparedness Investigation Subcommittee, I confirmed the date for Friday, 26 February 1971, for briefing of the Subcommittee staff. Mr. Kendall told me that question had arisen within the staff whether the briefing was scheduled for tomorrow.

(Internal Use Only - PLC) [REDACTED] Office of Security, requested verification of information that an Agency applicant, [REDACTED] had applied for a position of [REDACTED] page with the Senate and initiated a suit when she was turned down because of her sex. [REDACTED] conducted a discreet inquiry with a member of the staff of Senator Ernest Hollings (D., S. C.) and determined that [REDACTED] had initiated a suit; however, it involved the South Carolina State Legislature. [REDACTED] reportedly is a law student and has received considerable publicity. Security has been advised.

7. (Unclassified - LLM) Ruth Ann Komarek in the office of Senator Robert Dole (R., Kansas) called on behalf of a young constituent who was interested in "famous spies of the CIA." Miss Komarek was fully understanding and I referred her to the work by Mr. Dulles entitled "Great True Spy Stories", and said we would send her a brochure on the Agency which she said would certainly suffice.
